AUCTIONEERS LTD

STEERS TO £1,300 HEIFERS TO £1,225

A cracking show of well consigned stores at Frome this week sold to another flying trade to a ring packed with buyers and consequently not enough cattle to meet demand.

YOUNG CONTINENTALS

Several quality consignments met another fast trade helped by the inclement weather conditions. Tim & Connor Cox's Blondes set the trade with their 15mo steers to an amazing £1000, 9mo from £885 to £890 and his heifers to £835 11mo. A first excellent quality consignment from John & Louise Reason were in high demand with their 15mo Limousin steers to £985 and 18mo to an outstanding £1042. Their heifers met keen bidding from £805 to £838. Younger cattle also met a fast trade with Chris Bailward's Limousin steers to £832 only 10mo and his heifers to £805. Philliols Farm Limousins wanted to £708 8mo and the large consignment of Simmental steers from B & MJ Richards sold to £758 and Simmental heifers to £678 12mo.

HEREFORDS

Fewer Herefords forward this week to benefit from a firm trade. The best steer reached £1240 from S Ellmers with other strong types to £968 from Paul Mattick. Heifers from the same consignment reached £930. Younger Herefords in demand with a smart young steer from Wayne Lenihan reached £680.

ABERDEEN ANGUS

More forward Angus consigned with all types in demand. Steers peaked at £1180 for a heavy well-bred consignment from LW & RJ Wyatt. Similar heavy types from Derek Gordge achieved £1058 with several other consignments over £1000. Single suckled steers from Steve Alvis to £950 and £935 from Ringstead Farm. Heifers from Ingsdon Farm carrying flesh achieved £998 with other well consigned heifers to £960 from Derek Gordge and £885 from LW & RJ Wyatt. Plenty of buyers for younger Angus with steers to £800 for 9mo from Philliols Farm and 8mo to £728 from N Webb.

FRIESIANS & FLECKVIEH

Fewer Friesians forward this week to benefit from a firm trade with plenty of buyers in attendance. A cracking consignment of well-bred and reared British Friesians topped at £920 from LW & RJ Wyatt. Two heavy Fleckvieh steers from Paul Hurd were competitively bid for achieving £1140. Younger farming types in demand as most parts of the country see a flourish of grass.

SHORTHORN & DEVON

Forward Shorthorn steers topped the market at £1300 from TA Patchett followed by £1238 from the same consignment. Well-bred Devons carrying flesh to £1128. Shorthorn heifers from TA Patchett to £1070.

FORWARD CONTINENTALS

Another tremendous trade with strong bidding for forward cattle. Limousins met a fast trade with fleshed steers selling well from £1120 to £1255 from Paul Hurd, younger steers from £1000 to £1035 from Steve Alvis and £1042 only 18mo from John & Louise Reason. Forward Fleckvieh steers also wanted to £1140 from Paul Hurd and Blondes to £1098 21mo from Ingsdon Farm Ltd. Heifers equally sought after with forward Limousin heifers achieving top honours of the day selling to £1225 and £1090 all from Paul Hurd and his Fleckvieh heifers sold well to £1090. Fleshed Blondes wanted and sold to £1000 from Ingsdon Farm Ltd, Blue heifers met a keen demand from £900 from Clark Farms Ltd to £975 from Paul Mattick.
