FROME LIVESTOCK

AUCTIONEERS LTD

STEERS TO £1,272 HEIFERS TO 1,075

Larger entries emerging now for the traditional autumn sales. Some quality single suckled calves with annual consignments booked in for the coming weeks. As per previous weeks, the best quality selling well with lesser sorts slightly harder to place.

SUCKLER COWS & CALVES

Just a handful of suckler cow & calves and trade was firm for the better types. South Devon x cow with a steer calf 4/5mo peaked at £1140.

FEEDING BULLS

Trade more variable than of late and generally £300 - £640. Good younger Limousin 14mo from Sarah Jackson to £785.

YOUNG CONTINENTALS

More single suckled younger Continentals coming forward today. A number of good well-bred cattle saw a firmer trade than of late. Quality Limousin steers & heifers 5 - 8mo from Marcus Haywood regularly over £700 and topped at £802. Outstanding Limousins from Gavin Doyle created excellent bidding which saw 11mo steers well over £900 and peaked at £980. Heifers from the same home 11mo often over £800 and topped at an amazing £988. James Foot of P & S Foot once again producing their best quality Simmentals 10 - 12mo £715 - £772 and heifers to £668. Dairy bred Continentals generally a little firmer but buyers selective for the better types. Any cattle slightly too old for size finding trade difficult. Overall quality is the name of the game!

ABERDEEN ANGUS

A consistently solid trade for all Angus with both younger and stronger forwards well sold to demand. A cracking consignment of well grown Angus topped at £1200 from Frost & Frost, closely followed by £1190 from Roger, Maggie and Matthew Cobb. Plenty of other quality forward steers over £1100 including £1165 from A Wallis & family. Heifers from Frost & Frost carrying flesh to £1050. Fewer forward heifers presented with medium framed and butchers heifers over £800. Several good consignments of medium framed steers with named sires and potential selling between £900 and £1100. Quality young Angus from Marcus Hayward reached £685 for 8mo and a good run of steers 5/6mo from Rob Singleton were bid to £678.

HEREFORDS, DEVONS & SHORTHORNS

Mainly medium framed and younger Hereford with the better quality sorts selling to a buoyant trade. Well presented steers from A Wallis & family reached £920 followed by £865 from LP Shackell & Son. Several other consignments up to and over £800. The best heifers to £1035 from LP Shackell & Son with a good run of heifers from Lulworth Castle Farms trading between £850 and £950. Devon steers from Pete & Nicky Cooke to £852 and Shorthorn steers from N Spiller to £772. Shorthorn heifers from the James family to £752.

FRIESIANS/NORMANDE

The most selective trade with fleshed types a premium selling from £720 from the Wallis family, £740 from Tom Bourne and the best to £840 from RV & SL Edmunds. Feeding steers with potential to £650 from Martin & Lousie Bodman and others from £520 from AT Barnes & Son, £545 from Peter & Nicky Cooke and £565 from Michael & Giles Coleman. Younger steers a consistent trade from £428 to £475 from Ed Martin. A good range of Normande steers sold to £880 from GPR Haskell, mediums to £698 from Frost & Frost and others to £545 from Peter & Nicky Cooke.

FORWARD CONTINENTALS

More buyers ringside pushing prices up for the best. Smart Limousin steers met fast bidding to £1272 from C & J Smart and other quality types sold well to £1175 from John & Sue Loder. Their younger Limousin steers equally wanted to £1080. Well-bred and reared Charolais another highlight with 16-18mo steers from £1062 to £1098 twice from Mike Hoppe & family. Other quality types to £1010 from Charles Ledgerwood and young Blues to £1000 from the Wallis family. Fleshed heifers in demand with Limousin heifers selling from £1000 from C & J Smart to £1075 from John & Steve Loder, and bullers to £935 from Robert, Ann & Sue Mayo. Younger Charolais heifers also a fast trade from £970 from Mike Hoppe & family to £980 from the Wallis family. Fleshed Blue heifers wanted and sold to £1035 from LP Shackell & Son.
