FROME LIVESTOCK

AUCTIONEERS LTD

STEERS TO £1,232 HEIFERS TO £1,175

A slightly larger entry again this week as vendors look to sell stores to meet traditional autumn demand. Trade similar to recent weeks with the quality well-bred types selling well. Younger cattle a better trade on the week with fresh buyers from the North in attendance for all breeds.

FEEDING BULLS

A limited entry forward saw Herefords to £570 and British Blue to £470.

YOUNG CONTINENTALS

Trade firmer again today and overall a shortage of the best types. Several cattle still showing the effects of the very dry summer months. 5-6mo Charolais from the Maidment family to £570, top Charolais ¾ bred 9mo steers from regular vendor Rob Fry & family which peaked at £800. Philliols Farm producing some super Limousin 11mo steers at £788 and £680. Dairy bred British Blue x heifers 11mo to £520 but buyers looking for more fleshed types. Wonderful Charolais steers home-bred and single suckled from Julian & Kate Phillips peaked at an excellent £1055. Tim Cox continuing to present grand Blonde steers 12mo at £865 and £765, heifers to £565.

HEREFORDS

Herefords enjoyed fierce competition today with some nice runs of younger Herefords forward. No real best types, however some strong steers from CG Purchase & Son sold to £950. A cracking run of Herefords from S Lloyd-Harris with best to £908. A nice consignment of 12-15mo steers from Norman Barnes looked very well sold at £855 and £825. A large entry of Hereford heifers forward with no best quality topping at £885 from PJ Mattick, with others to £818 from RW & HL Young and £800 from HP & J Flux. Best younger heifers from Norman Barnes to £690, others to £650 from S Lloyd-Harris.

ABERDEEN ANGUS

Angus in high demand with plenty of buyers in attendance looking to fill orders. Forward steers well grown from Crocker Moor Farm Partnership topped at £1232 with other large framed steers reaching £1130 and £1040 from RV & SL Edmunds. Not many forward heifers consigned with heavier butchers heifers to £900 from RW & HL Young & Sons. Medium framed steers with named sires and potential to gain finish regularly above £900. Higher demand for younger types with more buyers in attendance.

FRIESIANS

A lot more Friesians forward than of late which enjoyed stiff competition all day, especially for the younger sorts. A nice run of 11 - 12mo Holstein Friesian steers from DM & PMA Drake which enjoyed spirited bidding and looked well sold at £550 with others to £522 and £478. Medium types from GW Kingston enjoyed fierce bidding and sold to £638, others to £615 from DR Loveridge & Sons. Some real cracking Holstein Friesian steers from DJ & SE Merrett rose to £850.

FORWARD CONTINENTALS

A fast trade for the limited number on offer with British Blues showing well and selling from £1095 to £1165 all from RV & SL Edmunds. Other quality Blue steers met keen interest to £1115 from Crocker Moor Farm Partnership and younger types at £920 from both GW Kingston and DO Webb. Framed Limousin steers also wanted with feeding types from £1005 from Paul Hurd to £1080 from Martin Webber. A good selection of predominately younger heifers on offer met a good trade with Limousin heifers to £982 from C & J Smart to £1008 from Paul Hurd. Similar British Blue heifers equally sold well from £900 to £975 from RV & SL Edmunds and £965 from Paul Mattick. Young Blues sold well to £860 from D Tomlins & N Bosley, young feeding heifers wanted and regularly sold from £740 to £775.
