STEERS TO £1480 HEIFERS TO £1450

A very exciting day in our November Orange market. The quality of cattle presented for sale was good and trade was excellent and certainly equal to that of our normal Friday market. A good compliment of buyers forward and all wanting cattle as the finished prices continue to rise.

CONTINENTAL

A super run of Continentals entered today both Blue and Charolais. Many Blue steers topped £1200 through the ring today with entries from AW Doel, W & F House and DH Wilkinson all over £1380 with top spot to the Phillips family to £1380. Young 13mo soft, well fed Blue steers from PE King (Bristol) Ltd to £1190. Thick well-shaped Blue heifers easily sold to £1370 from the same vendors, harder feeding Blue heifers from £1200 - £1286. A wonderful consignment of suckled Charolais (18-20mo) from MJ & MM Coombe, Weymouth saw furious bidding; steers often over £1200 to top at £1305 closely followed by their heifers £1100 - £1290 topping at £1295. Simmentals to £1405 from DH Wilkinson & Sons.

NATIVE

A strong entry of Angus x steers and heifers all seeing increased demand as more finishing buyers are desperate for cattle. Big numbers of forward steers £1250 - £1350 and the three top spots £1320, £1385 and £1405 all from DH Wilkinson & Sons. Quality Angus forward with heifers from Chris & Alex Doel £1040 - £1200 and their best bunches to £1295. Leaner younger heifers to £940 from Woodbridge Farm Partnership. Only younger Herefords on offer but 11mo shapely steers saw firm bidding at £745.

FRIESIAN

No problem selling strong deep bodied Friesian steers this week. Roger Phillips & family saw their 28-30mo steers regularly over £1300 topping at a massive £1480. Leaner younger types from Woodbridge Farm Partners ranged £800 - £1000.
